SERMONNOTES

“DON'T FALL WITH SATAN”
ISAIAH 14:12-15 | JAKE HUFFMAN

“Morning Star” V.12-the King of Babylon and Satan who exalt themselves and boast about what they have done and will do.

“you say in your heart” V.13 means that at the core of the devil is pride.

The five “I will” V.13,14 statements indicate the self-willed, self-important, self-directed, self-exalting mindset of the devil.

The god of this age has many sons who pride themselves on the greatness of what they can do if they put their mind to it, will it, and work at it. “I will lift myself up with my own skill, by my own will and through my own ability.”

- Proverbs 16:18,19
- Matthew 23:12

The way to be assured of falling with the devil is to be prideful.

- Luke 10:18

How do we get Satan behind us?

- Imitate the humility of Christ crucified. There Satan was defeated.

Philippians 2:3-9

1. Motives- Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vanity. V.3
2. Attitude- Value others above yourself. V.3
3. Nature- Be a servant. V.7
4. Actions-Obey God’s commands that require humility. V.8

Pray with the heart of a child and God will lift you up!
